Determination of chromium (VI) content

Objective

This test measures the chromium quantity in a leather sample.

Principle

The test consists in checking the content of chromium VI in the constituent elements of the glove. The result corresponds to the chromium VI content in leather and the conformity.

Type: Physical and mechanical test
Standard: NF EN 420 § 4.3.3
Product: Gloves
Criteria: Mechanical resistance

Last modified on 2025-04-16