

Cold insulation

Objective

This test verifies a sole's ability to insulate against cold environments.

Principle

The test consists in measuring the temperature drop observed on the insole inside a shoe placed in a -17°C environment.

Type: Physical and mechanical test

Standard: EN ISO 20344

Product: Footwear

Criteria: Performance

Last modified on 2025-04-23